

Dear AP Students and families,

It's getting to be that time: AP Exams are right around the corner starting in May! Below are dates and information to keep in mind while we go forward toward these tests. A more extensive list of prohibited materials may be found on the AP website.

What NOT to bring to the test:	What to bring to all tests:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phones • Smartwatches or fitness trackers • Mechanical pencils • Pencils that are not No. 2 • Watches that make any sound or alarm • Computers or unapproved calculators • Clothing or shoes with subject-related information • Food or drink 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No. 2 wooden pencils • Pens with black or dark blue ink required on all exams • An acceptable calculator for math test

Testing Dates: Students MUST be on time!

May 4, 2021	8AM	Calculus BC
May 5, 2021	8AM	English Literature and Composition
May 7, 2021	12PM	European History
May 11, 2021	8AM	Spanish Language and Culture
May 12, 2021	8AM	English Language and Composition
May 13, 2021	12PM	Statistics

Please reach out with any questions to trogers@bacards.org

Sincerely,

Tori Rogers

School Counselor