Today is day 1

"I'm always interested in challenging myself and pushing, and seeing how far I can go."

- TARAJI P. HENSON

Menu: Taco in a bag, black bean salsa, fresh veggies, oranges, peaches, fruit churro, and milk.

Line 3: Deli sandwich, ham or turkey, fresh veggies, chips, oranges, peaches and milk.

There will be no voice lessons today.

There will be a JO volleyball meeting on Monday, October 16th at 5:30 in the Foley High School Cafeteria.

8th grade football lost to a tough Pierz team last night. Keep fighting and let's bring it for your last game at Milaca on Tuesday!

Reminder to 7th and 8th grade football players to get your pizza money to Mr. Hovland before your pizza party today.

Mr. Drexler's classes should bring colored pencils today.

Any 7th grade girl who is interested in playing basketball, please meet Mr. Storkamp in the library immediately following announcements.

8th grade volleyball played very well at Cathedral last night. Both A and B team won their matches! Great job falcons!

There are no band lessons today.

Sixth and Seventh grade band students should bring a pencil to band today. They do not need chromebooks or instruments
