

Wednesday, December 13, 2023

Today is day 1

"Invisible threads are the strongest ties."

- FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE

Menu: Grilled cheese, tomato soup or chili, fresh veggies, applesauce, oranges and milk.

Middle Street Express: Bread slice, turkey or ham, cheese, chicken ranch pasta salad, fresh veggies, oranges, applesauce and milk.

The student council will be meeting today, at 12:30, in Mr. Swanson's room.

"The Falcon Nest is accepting gently used Falcon wear that will be sold in the school store for $2 per item. All profits will go back to our activities and clubs. Please donate items without last names to the bin located in the entryway of the office."

Our next Frosty Fun Day is Tuesday Dec. 19th. Tickets will be on sale before school in the cafeteria, 5th grade pod, and 4th grade pod.

We are having soup for lunch today. Please put the soup bowls into the bin provided for you. These bowls are not to be thrown into the garbage!

Door decorations need to be up and completed by the end of the day on Friday, December 15th at 3:00. Pictures will be taken sometime between Friday and Monday morning. Winners will be picked for the door as is at the time of the photo. Winners will be announced next week.

There are no group lessons today or Thursday. Ms. Darling is having individual lessons. Saxophones will have group lessons on Friday.

7th grade split with Cathedral last night. They lost a hard fought battle 24-19 and won the second game 17-14. Great work last night boys! Keep up the hard work!