Today is day 1

"We can choose to be a character in a story written out by someone else or we can choose to be the author of our own story."

- RUBY GARCIA

Menu: Beef hotdog or Grand Champion Brat on a bun, potato smiles, baked beans, fresh veggies, peaches, apple and milk. Middle Street Express: Hot Italian combo, potato smiles, baked beans, fresh veggies, apple, peaches and milk.

7th Grade Voice Lessons today are for: Group 5 at 1:10pm, and Group 6 at 1:40pm.

The Media Center will be closing today at 2:10.

The Lots Of Socks campaign exists to raise awareness about Down syndrome. Believe it or not, socks help us to get people talking on World Down Syndrome Day, celebrated each year on March 21. All you need to do is choose some socks that are going to get noticed - they might be mismatched socks or your craziest and most colorful socks, whatever takes your fancy! If someone asks you about your socks you can tell them, "I'm wearing them to raise awareness of Down syndrome".

The following students are the March students of the month at FIS. These students were nominated for outstanding achievement in Fine Arts (Band, Choir, Music, Art). Please come to the hallway outside the field house immediately following announcements.
