

Attention: Input Opportunity

Superintendent Brian Shanks' resignation has been approved by the Glenville-Emmons School Board effective June 30, 2024. The South Central Service Coop of North Mankato has been chosen to conduct a Search for a replacement.

The South Central Service Coop invites students, parents, staff and community members to share their thoughts about what characteristics to look for in the next Superintendent.

Please complete the short On-Line Survey found on the website below. Your input is much appreciated.
