

Spelling Lesson 8 – Me and Uncle Romie aloud Sentence: Please read aloud rather than silently. Definition: not silently; in a voice that can be heard bald Sentence: A bald man has lost all of his hair. Definition: having no hair or natural covering hawk Sentence: A hawk, like an eagle, is a large bird of prey. Definition: large bird of prey with hooked bill, long tail south Sentence: On the map, north is up and south is down. Definition: the direction opposite of north faucet Sentence: Water from the sink comes out of the faucet. Definition: an opening or tube through which water exits proud Sentence: I was proud to finish first in the race. Definition: feeling satisfaction, honor or pride claw Sentence: The cat scratched my hand with its claw. Definition: a sharp nail or pincer on an animal tower Sentence: The tall office tower is a modern building. Definition: tall structure higher than wide stalk Sentence: A lion will quietly stalk his prey. Definition: to follow or hunt in a sneaky way couple Sentence: The couple were married in the summer. Definition: two people in love howl Sentence: A wolf's howl sounds scary at night. Definition: a long, loud cry false Sentence: False fruit is made of a wax, but looks real. Definition: not true or genuine dawn Sentence: It is pretty when the sun rises at dawn. Definition: early morning or the beginning of daytime allow Sentence: I will allow you to ride my bike just once. Definition: to give permission drown Sentence: The plants will drown in the rising flood. Definition: to sink or become covered in a liquid pause Sentence: Stop or pause the movie for a short moment. Definition: to briefly stop an activity fault Sentence: Pressure within Earth can cause rocks in its outer layer to break along a fault.

Definition: a break or crack in the Earth's crust cause Sentence: Loud music can cause hearing loss. Definition: to make or make happen amount Sentence: I'll add them together to get the total amount. Definition: quantity, how much or how many cloudier Sentence: The sky got cloudier as the storm approached. Definition: more overcast, less sunny or clear the bowl. Definition: broth made with meat or vegetables