

Spelling Lesson 10 – Jose, Born to Dance learn Sentence: I will learn how to write at school. Definition: to gain knowledge of dirty Sentence: He fell in the mud and got his pants dirty. Definition: the opposite of clean worn Sentence: The pants are so worn that they have holes. Definition: damaged by excessive use sore Sentence: I hurt my ankle and now it is sore. Definition: painful or causing distress thirst Sentence: I quench my thirst with water on a hot day. Definition: a need for water or other liquid burn Sentence: Do not burn your hand on the hot stove. Definition: to hurt, mark or damage with fire or heat record Sentence: The record of events tells what happened. Definition: body of known facts about something cure Sentence: A scientist found a cure for the disease. Definition: a treatment that restores health board Sentence: Use a flat wooden board to make a shelf. Definition: a long plank usually made of wood course Sentence: I like my math course in school. Definition: class or plan of study worth Sentence: The fine painting is worth a lot of money. Definition: having a specific value, deserving of early Sentence: He was an early riser, so the kitchen was empty. Definition: happening before an expected or usual time return Sentence: We will go home and return to work tomorrow. Definition: to come or go back pure Sentence: This ring is pure, uncontaminated gold. Definition: free from taint or contaminants, not mixed world Sentence: I will sail around the world and visit all countries. Definition: the planet Earth; an entire realm search Sentence: She will search for her lost earring. Definition: to look carefully for something worse Sentence: My cold became worse before it became better. Definition: comparatively more harmful or bad thirteen Sentence: Six plus seven equals thirteen. Definition: the number after twelve and before fourteen sport Sentence: Basketball is my favorite sport. Definition: an athletic activity current Sentence: The current year is the one we are in now. Definition: presently occurring or prevalent