

Spelling Lesson 11 – Hurricanes, Earth’s Mightiest Storms

somebody Sentence: Somebody left the anonymous gift. Definition: an unknown person fireplace Sentence: The room had a fireplace for burning logs. Definition: open area in a room for burning wood for heat nearby Sentence: The nearby park is only a block away. Definition: located a short distance away toothbrush Sentence: I brushed my teeth with my toothbrush. Definition: long handled brush used for cleaning teeth homesick Sentence: I was homesick and missed my family. Definition: longing for home or family make-believe Sentence: Let's play make-believe and dress as pirates. Definition: the action of pretending or imagining anything Sentence: I can be anything I choose when I grow up. Definition: any object or thing all right Sentence: It's all right with me if we leave now. Definition: acceptable or agreeable goodbye Sentence: Before leaving, I said goodbye to my friend. Definition: something said when a person leaves a place forehead Sentence: My long bangs covered my forehead. Definition: the part of the face above the eyebrows classmate Sentence: My classmate and I have the same teacher. Definition: person one attends school with flashlight Sentence: Carry a flashlight to illuminate the dark path. Definition: a battery operated portable light haircut Sentence: The barber gave me a haircut. Definition: act or result of trimming a person's tresses twenty-two Sentence: Ten plus twelve equals twenty-two. Definition: the number that comes after twenty-one driveway Sentence: I drove up the driveway into our garage. Definition: a short road joining a house and a street alarm clock Sentence: My alarm clock buzzes to wake me up. Definition: a timepiece that makes a sound at a set time baby-sit Sentence: I watch and baby-sit their children for pay. Definition: to watch over or take care of others' children airport Sentence: Planes land on a runway at the airport. Definition: a place from which aircraft operate forever Sentence: I will love you forever and always. Definition: always, throughout all time mailbox Sentence: The postman put the letter in my mailbox. Definition: a receptacle for letters and packages