

Spelling Lesson 13 – Antarctic Journal wiped Sentence: He wiped the sweat from his face. Definition: rubbed or swept off covered Sentence: I covered the top of the bed with the quilt. Definition: overlaid the surface of mapped Sentence: We mapped out our route to get to the lake. Definition: charted a route or laid a plan pleasing Sentence: The lovely music was pleasing to my ears. Definition: enjoyable or agreeable slipped Sentence: She slipped on the ice and nearly fell. Definition: suddenly slid, moved smoothly, erred putting Sentence: I am putting my books in my backpack. Definition: placing or positioning traveled Sentence: He traveled to ten countries. Definition: made a journey seeking Sentence: We explored the island, seeking treasure. Definition: looking for or searching visiting Sentence: My grandma is here visiting from the coast. Definition: going to see, paying a call on mixed Sentence: We mixed and combined the ingredients. Definition: to combine different things together shipped Sentence: I shipped the box through the mail. Definition: sent or transported by water or other means phoning Sentence: The caller is phoning to speak to his dad. Definition: calling someone on the telephone offered Sentence: He offered to work if she needed extra help. Definition: suggested or gave freely; made available smelling Sentence: Yuck, I am smelling his stinky feet! Definition: using one's nose to detect odor hiking Sentence: I am hiking the hill with a walking stick. Definition: taking a long walk, especially up a hill checking Sentence: I am checking to see if the mail has come. Definition: looking, examining, or verifying fainted Sentence: Someone who has fainted loses consciousness. Definition: someone who loses consciousness from fear, hunger, or weakness landed Sentence: The airplane landed on the runway. Definition: set down on a surface, ended up somewhere becoming Sentence: The boy is gradually becoming a fine man. Definition: growing or changing into something wandering Sentence: She's walking and wandering around aimlessly. Definition: roaming around without direction