

Spelling Lesson 16 – Riding Freedom

risky Sentence: The risky stunt required safety equipment. Definition: involving danger or potential hazard track Sentence: We raced on the track for the meet. Definition: a path that has been laid or left or followed topic Sentence: The topic of her essay was weather patterns. Definition: a subject to be researched or discussed blank Sentence: The paper was blank until I began drawing. Definition: empty, not written or drawn on question Sentence: Please raise your hand to ask a question. Definition: an inquiry about something one wants to know pocket Sentence: I keep my keys in the pocket of my pants. Definition: sewn pouch for holding or carrying monkey Sentence: A monkey swung by his tail in the tree. Definition: a small animal with a long tail, a primate junk Sentence: That broken pen is junk, throw it away! Definition: a discarded or worthless thing equal Sentence: As a fellow colleague, you are my equal. Definition: person or thing with same status or value ache Sentence: Her injured arms ache with pain. Definition: to throb, swell or be in pain public Sentence: The public is invited to a community meeting. Definition: the people of a community attack Sentence: They will attack early by striking at dawn. Definition: strike upon with force struck Sentence: He struck the baseball with the bat. Definition: to have hit with something earthquake Sentence: Pictures hanging on the wall fell during the earthquake. Definition: sudden movement in Earth's crust picnic Sentence: We had a picnic out on the lawn at lunchtime. Definition: a casual meal eaten outdoors banker Sentence: The banker took money out of the vault. Definition: a person who works at a financial institution electric Sentence: Electric tools must be plugged into outlets. Definition: pertaining to electricity, power blanket Sentence: I cover myself with a blanket to stay warm. Definition: a large cloth often used to keep warm mistake Sentence: I fixed my mistake and got the answer right. Definition: an accidental error stomach Sentence: My stomach growls when I am hungry. Definition: an organ in the body that digests food