

Spelling Lesson 18 – Hercules' Quest

unused Sentence: The unused shampoo bottle was still full. Definition: something that has not been utilized refresh Sentence: I refresh the old water for the flowers. Definition: restore condition to or make like new again dislike Sentence: I dislike coffee but like tea. Definition: to show aversion to replace Sentence: Replace the old batteries with new ones. Definition: to change or provide a substitute unpaid Sentence: I need to write checks for my unpaid bills. Definition: of a debt not yet settled redo Sentence: I cannot find my homework so I will redo it. Definition: to write or perform again disorder Sentence: Everybody speaking at once caused disorder. Definition: chaos or lack of order unplanned Sentence: An unplanned stop was not what I had in mind. Definition: not expected or thought of ahead of distrust Sentence: I distrust people who lie. Definition: suspect, doubt rewind Sentence: Rewind the tape to get back to the beginning.: Definition: to reverse the winding of or wind again untrue Sentence: Fiction stories are untrue. Definition: false, fictitious unload Sentence: We will unload the shipment from the truck. Definition: to remove items recall Sentence: Can you recall what you ate yesterday? Definition: to remember displease Sentence: Skipping his chores will displease his mom. Definition: to make unhappy; to not be approving of uneven Sentence: The bumpy road had uneven pavement. Definition: not level, smooth, or equal, inconsistent rebuild Sentence: He will rebuild the bike with new parts. Definition: to repair, restore or construct over again restart Sentence: If we finish we will restart and play again. Definition: to start or begin again uncover Sentence: He'll uncover the cake by removing the box. Definition: to find, reveal or make something known untidy Sentence: Her room was an untidy mess. Definition: messy and disordered discolor Sentence: The berries may discolor, or stain, the bowl. Definition: change the color of, usually for the worse