

Spelling Lesson 21 - The World According to Humphrey event Sentence: The parade was a spectacular event. Definition: something that happens, often noteworthy humor Sentence: The funny boy has a great sense of humor. Definition: the quality of being funny or amusing rapid Sentence: The race car's rapid pace set a new record. Definition: very fast in movement music Sentence: He played beautiful music on his guitar. Definition: melodies or sounds meant to be pleasing relief Sentence: Air conditioning provides relief from heat. Definition: release from discomfort or pain planet Sentence: Our planet revolves around the sun. Definition: large object that revolves around the sun detail Sentence: I shared every small detail of the trip. Definition: an item or a particular of minor importance unite Sentence: We will unite together for the cause. Definition: to combine or come together frozen Sentence: The ice cubes in the freezer were frozen. Definition: solidified by cold temperatures figure Sentence: Every historical figure we study had some influence on the future. Definition: a person who is well-known for a specific reason siren Sentence: A siren goes off to warn people of a tornado. Definition: a loud warning signal polite Sentence: She is always polite and never rude. Definition: having good manners and behavior hotel Sentence: We stayed in a luxury hotel on the beach. Definition: lodge that provides rooms to travelers protest Sentence: I will protest the new rule if I object to it. Definition: to object or complain punish Sentence: She will punish me by taking away my game. Definition: to discipline wrongdoing defend Sentence: We will defend the castle against enemies. Definition: to keep safe from something relay Sentence: Their team won the relay. Definition: a team race with a baton habit Sentence: He has a habit of eating eggs every day. Definition: established pattern of behavior, or routine student Sentence: The student is learning from her teacher. Definition: someone who attends classes to learn moment Sentence: The quick rain storm lasted only a moment. Definition: a very brief period of time