

Spelling Lesson 30 – Mystery at Reed’s Pond meant Sentence: I played hard because I meant to win. Definition: intended or had as a purpose routine Sentence: My routine is to have coffee every morning. Definition: normal or habitual procedure style Sentence: Your style of clothing is very unique. Definition: a distinctive kind, type, or fashion flood Sentence: The flood filled the whole town with water. Definition: an overflow of water onto dry land month Sentence: January is the first month of the year. Definition: one of the twelve almost equal parts of a year pleasant Sentence: Our picnic was pleasant and enjoyable. Definition: pleasing or enjoyable guess Sentence: I would guess that it is almost noon. Definition: to form an opinion from little or no evidence women Sentence: Boys become men and girls become women. Definition: two or more adult females either Sentence: We can have either chicken or beef for lunch. Definition: used with or to express a choice against Sentence: Lean against the door so she cannot get in. Definition: in contact with so as to rest or press on disguise Sentence: My eye patch is part of my pirate disguise. Definition: clothes worn to hide one's true identity sweat Sentence: Sweat dripped from my forehead as I jogged. Definition: liquid that comes through pores in skin magazine Sentence: A magazine has articles and pictures inside. Definition: illustrated periodical with varied content guard Sentence: The guard protects the jewels in the museum. Definition: someone or something that protects another receive Sentence: I will receive the gift when he delivers it. Definition: accept, welcome, get or take wonder Sentence: I wonder to myself if it will snow tonight. Definition: to have curiosity, consider league Sentence: My football team is part of the youth league. Definition: people who join together and share interests type Sentence: Lollipops are my favorite type of candy. Definition: a kind or sort of thing, class ceiling Sentence: Books were stacked from floor to ceiling. Definition: upper limit of a room or other space money Sentence: The money is in my bank. Definition: currency, notes, or coins used to make purchases