JAMIE GOEBEL

Mr. Goebel grew up on a dairy farm in Freeport, Minnesota. Mr. Goebel received his degree from St. Cloud State University and has been in education for 19 years.

Mr. Goebel and his wife, Heidi, have 3 kids; Evan who is in the Air Force, Aubrey in 10th grade, and Isaac in 3rd grade. His favorite memory growing up was being a farm kid. Mr. Goebel chose education as a career because he wanted to make a positive difference in the lives of students. His favorite memories as an educator are the graduation ceremonies and seeing the students reach an important milestone in their lives. One thing that Mr. Goebel wants to do in the future is travel to Europe.

GREG TOWNSLEY

Greg grew up in Iowa. Prior to driving van for the school, he worked at Hormel for 35 years. He is married and has 3 daughters & 2 grandkids. His favorite childhood memory is going to his Grandpa's. He chose to work at Lyle Public Schools because he enjoys the kids and it's something for him to do in retirement. His favorite part of his job is the kids. One thing on his bucket list is seeing the Don Garlits Racing Museum in Florida.

JORDYN LUNDMARK

Jordyn grew up in Ames Iowa where her Mom, Dad, & brother all still live.

She also has a twin sister who lives a couple blocks from her. Jordyn and her husband, Blake, have a dog named Moose and a cat named Willow.

Before coming to Lyle, Jordyn was a nanny for 2 years. Her favorite childhood memory is camping with her family. Jordyn chose to be a Para because she loves working with children and watching them succeed.

She loves that every day as a Para is a new day and there is never a dull moment. Plus she is always busy. One thing on her bucket list is to see the Northern Lights in Alaska!
