So, How Are The Children?

This is a traditional greeting among the African Masai Tribe acknowledging the high value that the Masai place on their children's well-being. Even warriors with no children of their own give the traditional answer. "All the children are well." Meaning, that peace and safety prevail, that the priorities of protecting the young, and the powerless are in place, and that we have not forgotten our reason for being, our proper functions and responsibilities. "All the children are well" means that life is good.

Speech by Rev Patrick T. O'Neill
