McKinney-Vento Regulations

If your living arrangement is both temporary and the result of economic hardship, you may qualify for services under the McKinney-Vento Act. The purpose of this law is to provide academic stability for students of families in transition.

You may want to talk with the Moose Lake McKinney-Vento Education Liaison if your family's temporary living arrangement is one of the following:

- You are living with friends or relatives, or moving from place to place, because you cannot currently afford your own housing.
- You are living in a shelter or a motel/hotel/other month by month rental.
- You are living in a Transitional Housing Program
- You are living in housing without water or electricity.
- You are living in a place not considered traditional "housing", like a car or a campground.
- *You are a student living on your own (in a similar situation) without a parent or legal guardian.

*A student may qualify as an "unaccompanied youth" if he or she is living with someone who is not a parent or guardian, or if he or she is moving from place to place without a parent or guardian.

Children who qualify under McKinney-Vento have the right to:

- Attend the school they were attending when their family was forced to move to a temporary address because of economic hardship, even if that school is in another school district. The choice must be a reasonable one that is in the best interest of the children involved. Check with the district McKinney-Vento Education Liaison if you are not sure.
- Attend the school closest to where they are being sheltered.
- Stay in this school for the duration of the school year if their families are forced to move to another temporary address because of economic hardship.
- Receive assistance with transportation to attend school while they are being temporarily housed.
- Start school immediately while people at school help families obtain school and immunization records or other documents necessary for enrollment.
- Enroll in school without having a permanent address.
- Participate in the same programs and services that other students participate in.
- Receive Title 1 services, including free breakfast and lunch.
