NCAA Eligibility Back-to-School Reminders

Here are the three top things you can do to assist those student-athletes who carry their dream of playing collegiate athletics.

1. Advise Students to Register.

Encourage student-athletes wanting to study and compete at an NCAA school to register with the Eligibility Center at eligibilitycenter.org. Students should plan to register before their freshman year of high school (or year nine of secondary school) with a free Profile Page account. Profile Page account registrants get an NCAA ID and important reminders from the Eligibility Center as they progress through high school. These accounts can be transitioned to a paid certification account at any time.

Any student planning to compete in NCAA Division I or II sports must create a certification account before taking an official visit or signing a National Letter of Intent.

2. Update Core-Course List.

Update your school's core-course list by visiting the High School Portal. If you believe your school's list is accurate, please log in to verify you have no updates. This will refresh your account and let our team know your core-course list is current and correct.

3. Upload Sixth Semester Transcripts.

Visit the High School Portal to upload sixth semester transcripts for your incoming senior student-athletes. If you have never uploaded a student-athlete's transcript, click here to learn how. If you have additional semesters included since the last upload, please continue to upload these transcripts now so that the Eligibility Center may complete preliminary reviews.

McDonald's Spotlight Program

This school year, your local McDonald's is excited to partner with the TSSAA to support high school athletics, student-athletes, and local communities in the Memphis area. As part of their partnership, your school is eligible for the "McDonald's Spotlight" promotion this fall. This promotion is a way for your school to win $500 by either promoting a great play on the field, fans showing their school spirit, an act of good sportsmanship, or any other sports related occurrence. The opportunities are endless, so feel free to get creative.

To participate in this promotion, simply use your social media channel of choice with the hashtag- #McDonaldsSpotlight- at any athletic event at your school. It's that easy! Parents, school administrators, students, and all fans are encouraged to participate.

So, what are the rules? You must be at your school's athletic event to be eligible using #McDonaldsSpotlight for your entry. Also, please make sure that all entries embody the true meaning of good sportsmanship and are free of profanity or obscene gestures. Any entries that do not follow these guidelines will not be considered.

Each month, one (1) entry will be selected, and a $500 check will be mailed to your school. The contest begins officially on September 1, 2022 and ends on December 1, 2022.

For any questions regarding the contest, feel free to email Beth Johnson by clicking here.
