SCIAA Girls' Soccer Championships

Middle School Championships

The SCIAA middle school girls' soccer championships were held on Monday, September 27 at Crump Stadium.

In the small division game, Craigmont Middle School faced Maxine Smith STEAM Academy. Both teams entered the game with undefeated league records. The Maxine Smith Lady Knights, led by Coach Kyle Kuusisto, scored early and often on way to a 13-0 win for the championship. The MVP of the game was Addyson Hines.

In the large division matchup, Germantown Middle School and White Station Middle School played for the girls' soccer championship. Zoe Taylor was named MVP in the White Station Spartans 7-0 win. The Spartans are coached by Tom Pickering.

High School Championships

The high school girls' soccer championships were also held at Crump on Wednesday, September 29.

The A-AA girls soccer teams were first up as the Crosstown Yetis took on the East Mustangs. The Yetis, coached by Shelby Tucker, came out on top with a 9-2 score. Ava Richardson was named MVP.

In the AAA championship game, White Station High School was pitted against the Germantown Red Devils. The White Station Spartans had a 2-1 lead at the half, but Germantown tied it up in the first minute of the second half. White Station answered the score quickly, however, on their way to an 8-2 win. The Spartans are coached by Shelley Rose, and Jazmin Trejo was named the MVP of the game.

Germantown and White Station ended their seasons Thursday playing in the TMSAA West TN Sectionals where both teams fell short of victory.

All high school girls' soccer teams will begin district tournaments next week. SCIAA congratulates each of these teams on their regular season accomplishments and wishes them good luck as they advance in the playoffs.
