NCAA HIGH SCHOOL ADVISORY GROUP

The NCAA High School Advisory Group is comprised of high school counselors, administrators and others involved in the high school space nationally. The Eligibility Center's High School Advisory Group teleconferences monthly. Members provide critical insight into the most recent needs, trends and challenges faced by high school counselors, coaches, administrators and others who advocate and support high school student-athletes.

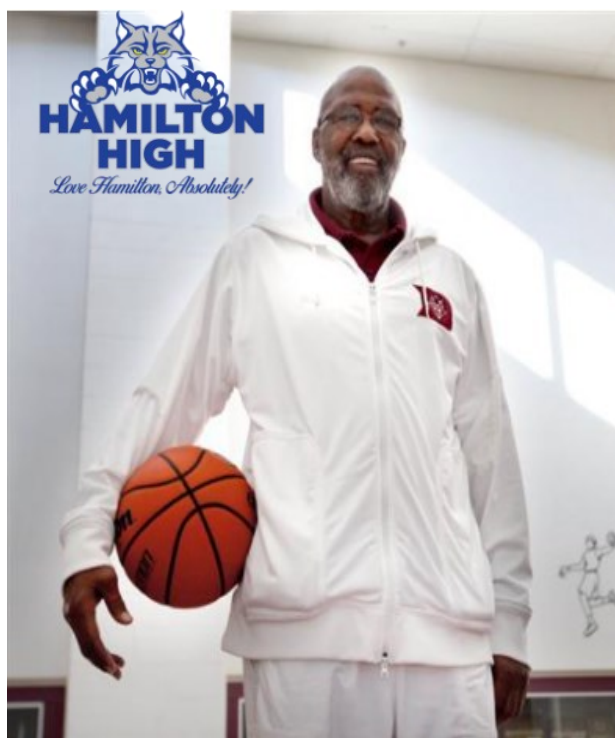

Interested in becoming a member of the High School Advisory Group? To apply, please submit a resume and 500-word statement describing why you would like to serve as a member of the High School Advisory Group to ecupdate@ncaa.org. Entries must be submitted by Tuesday, May 31. Incomplete and/or late submissions will not be considered.

Note: Participation in the group is a two-year commitment and will require you to participate in monthly teleconferences during the academic year.

NCAA PRO TIP: RECRUITING SCAMS

Several apparent scams by purported recruiting experts have been reported in the media recently. In an effort to prevent this from happening to your students and their families, encourage them to reach out to the NCAA Eligibility Center to determine how we can help before they make a financial commitment.

2022 TSSAA HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE: TED ANDERSON
