NIAAA Hall of Fame Jim Dorman

Jim Dorman, CMAA, retired in 2016 from athletic administration after 19 years in the profession. He continues to be involved as the Executive Director of the South Dakota Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association (SDIAAA).

On the national scale, Dorman is a member of the National Executive Directors Council (NEDC) and hosted the 2021 Summer Summit in South Dakota. At the National Athletic Directors Conference (NADC), he was a presenter and workshop moderator.

As executive director of the SDIAAA, Dorman has applied for and received two NIAAA outreach grants. He also vied for the CMAA project to have an oral presentation option, which is now a choice for CMAA candidates. He was selected to serve on the NIAAA Board of Directors as the NEDC Liaison in 2022.

At the state level, Dorman designed and maintained the first website for the SDIAAA, and he was the newsletter editor for several years. Furthermore, he was responsible for awards, membership, and the annual state conference. He also served on the Track & Field Advisory Committee and the ad hoc Sportsmanship Committee for the South Dakota High School Activities Association (SDHSAA).

Dorman spent time as an athletic director at three different schools in his career. He was conference president at some of his schools, and was region chairman for many sports including boys and girls basketball, gymnastics, track & field, volleyball, and wrestling. Since retirement, he has helped local schools by setting up and helping with cross country, wrestling, gymnastics, and track & field meets.

Dorman's honors include the NIAAA State Award of Merit, NIAAA Bruce D. Whitehead Distinguished Service Award, and was a nominee for the NFHS Citation. He has been inducted into the SDIAAA Hall of Fame and several other halls of fame.

NIAAA Distinguished Service Award

The Distinguished Service Award is presented to a limited number of NIAAA members each year in recognition of their length of service, special accomplishments and contributions to athletic administration at the local, state and national level.

NIAAA State Award of Merit

The NIAAA State Award of Merit is presented on an annual basis to an NIAAA member in each state in recognition of meritorious service, leadership and special contributions to interscholastics at the local and state level.

2022-2023 NIAAA State Award of Merit

Jared Vasquez has been in education for 30 years as high school and middle school teacher and coach. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Black Hills State University and his master's in educational leadership from South Dakota State University. He became the athletic director at Rapid City Stevens in 2010 and is retiring after 13 years in that position. He was a student council advisor, class advisor, and chaperoned 15 students to Germany. Vasquez has served on community boards and committees including the Rushmore Bowl Committee, Visit Rapid City/The Monument Advisory Panel, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. Vasquez filled two terms as a region representative on the SDIAAA Executive Committee. He was president of the organization in 2021-2022. He was a member of several committees including Strategic Planning, Technology, and Scholarship. He is one of the social media coordinators. Vasquez received his Certified Athletic Administration (CAA) from the NIAAA in 2020. He is a member of the SDIAAA Leadership Training Faculty. He was named Region AD of the Year in 2021. Vasquez has served as an SDHSAA state event director for several events in various activities. He was co-event director or event director for over 40 athletic state tournaments and served as support administrator for SDHSAA music and student council events. He was a member of several SDHSAA advisory committees and subcommittees. He was on the COVID-19 Task Force. Vasquez is married to wife Kelly, and they have three children. Jonah (21) is in his second year at the University of Wyoming, Josselyn (19) is in her first year at Massachusetts College of Art, and Jaelyn (17) is a junior at Rapid City Stevens.

SDIAAA Steve Berseth Professional Development Award

The SDIAAA Steve Berseth Professional Development award was created in 2017 to honor the contributions of Steve Berseth who was instrumental in the creation, expansion and continuation of the Leadership Training Program and the Certification Program of the SDIAAA. The Steve Berseth Award is presented annually to a current or retired member of the SDIAAA that has demonstrated a commitment to their personal and professional growth as well as continued service to the SDIAAA and its Professional Development Academy through participation in the Leadership Training Institute and/or Certification Program.

2023 SDIAAA Steve Berseth Professional Development Award

Joey Struwe has been active at the local, state, and national level in athletics. He has been the activities director at Lincoln High School for the past seven years. Prior to that he served as the activities director at Harrisburg for two years and for 18 years at Estelline prior to that. Struwe has coached basketball, cross country and track & field during his 37 years in education. He has been a member of the SDIAAA for 27 years and served as the president in 2014. He is currently the Leadership Training Coordinator for the SDIAAA and serves on the SDHSAA Soccer Advisory Committee. At the national level Struwe has served on the Certification Committee where he became the vice-chair. He is currently on the NIAAA Professional Development Academy Team. He earned his Certified Athletic Administrator (CAA) certification in 2011 and became a Certified Master Athletic Administrator (CMAA) in 2014. Struwe has received numerous awards including Region Athletic Director of the Year, NIAAA State Award of Merit, NIAAA Bruce D. Whitehead Distinguished Service Award, Steve Berseth Professional Development Award, and has been a finalist for NHSAA Athletic Director of the Year. "I am humbled and honored to be recognized by the coaches and athletic administrators of South Dakota for this award," said Struwe. "I have truly been blessed to work with so many great athletic administrators that are also deserving of this recognition. This award reflects the exceptional coaching staff at Lincoln who make doing what I do very easy as well as athletes who strive to pursue excellence daily. In addition, a supportive family, a unified administrative team, and a school community passionate about all aspects of education allows me the opportunity to pursue my passion of providing educational athletic opportunities to our youth."

SDIAAA Athletic Directors of the Year

2022 SDIAAA Athletic Director of the Year

With Title IX celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, the South Dakota Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association has selected its first female Athletic Director of the Year, Julie Eppard of Chester Area Schools. This year she also became the first female athletic director in South Dakota to be selected its NIAAA State Award of Merit recipient. Eppard was hired by Chester Area School District in 2013 to be the 6th-12th grade principal and activities director. Prior to that, she worked 15 years at Lyman, one year at Chamberlain, and two years at Pipestone, MN. During her time at Chester, she has served as the region volleyball chair for nine years, region golf for four, and region track & field for six years. Under Eppard's guidance, Chester Area School has had 10 state runners-up/championships. In 2019, Eppard received her Certified Athletic Administration (CAA) from the NIAAA. She was named Region AD of the Year in 2017-2018 and Region Principal of the Year in 2016-2017. She currently serves as the chair for the SDIAAA Mentoring Committee and was a member of the SDHSAA Covid-19 Taskforce. Eppard said, "I have been truly blessed and grateful to work with such amazing student athletes, coaches, staff, administration, and community not only at Chester Area, but throughout the state. It is these groups that keep making me want to be better and always look for growth." Eppard is married to Doug Eppard, and they have four boys, all who serve in either the Army National Guard or Air National Guard (Austin-24, Devin-22, Carson-19, Stratton-17), and one daughter, Emmerson-14.
