COIN WAR

NOVEMBER COIN WAR FOR THE FOOD SHELF

Congratulations to Mrs. Becker's class (pictured above) for having the most money in their container (after the sabotage) and to the 6th graders (pictured below) for bringing in the most silver coin. Besides the elementary coin war, high schoolers collected money, and a volleyball game was held that teams had to pay to enter, and a total of $1663.77 was raised and donated to the Houston County Food Shelf. The classes are pictured with Kris Wilson, head of the Houston County food shelf.

The Friday before Christmas break, the 6-12 graders will be working on service projects, including packing up bags with goodies, to be given away.

Juletrefest 2022

Saturday, Dec. 17

1pm: Julemarket, Bake Sale, & Live Music
2pm: Craft stations, baking demos, lighting of the tree

Giants of the Earth invites young and old to their annual Juletrefest, Saturday, December 17 at Giants of the Earth Heritage Center.

Join them for a julemarket with local artisans, a bake sale, live music, food samples/demos, craft stations, and more!

The Bake sale, and Julemarket begin at 1:00, along with the movie "Journey to the Christmas Star". This will give parents a chance to shop the vendors and the gift store while their kids are watching the movie.

Crafts begin at 2:00 with a visit from the julenisse around 3:30 with gifts for the barnen (children), and singing and dancing around the fresh juletre!

This is a free event, but free-will donations are accepted.
