OUR MISSION

*Inspiring
students to meet challenges with confidence.*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

On Tuesday September 12th, members of the Spring Grove FFA went to the MN Miller/Mabel Canton FFA General Livestock Invitational. Three Spring Grove teams competed in the contest. One team took 3rd place out of 36 other teams, our second team placed 18th and the third-team took 26th place. Individually, Shawn Crouch placed 8th out of 204 other students competing in the contest.

Way to go SG FFA!

ELEMENTARY FLAG FOOTBALL

24 - 2nd and 3rd grade kids signed up through Community Ed to learn and play flag football. At their first practice Mr. Moore (head football coach) gave them a wonderful, encouragement-filled pep talk. Thank you Mr. Moore. The participants practice once a week after school and will play at halftimes of the regular season home games. Go Young Lions!

7TH GRADERS

7th Graders toured Nettle Valley Farm. Besides touring the farm, they interviewed Dayna Burtness (owner) about Citizenship.

Through the Bluff Country Collaborative Navigators, five students from Spring Grove toured the Heartland Blooms and Berry Farm in rural Caledonia.

All the students who attended had a chance to put together a flower arrangement.

Thanks to owners Kristi and Kevin for a fun, interesting event!
